Peter Cornelius (?). Move on.

Pathetic. Read the transcript. Lies under oath were not told by me and that matter is being looked at by the court so further comment on perjury is out at present.

After being provoked for a couple of hours in a sham mediation meeting at MRA HQ I asked the president/chairman of the meeting to step outside. The meeting was a clear breach of the MRA Constitution because there was no independent mediator. I apologised to the court for losing my temper at that meeting on March 18, 2003. Worse happens in Parliament and in Bingo Halls. There was no physical contact at any time. That's it. Plenty of witnesses.

The result of the March 18 provocation was an excuse to spend amounts of members' funds, without approval, on legal/security services targeted at one member probably with political motives.

As for the 4B account. That is a lie. The time line is out 5 years. The only 4B account was opened illegally perhaps 12 years ago, 1992/3 (?). I retired as MRA President in 1998. The MRA Board in the early 90s closed the 4B account as soon as they found out about it. There were no members funds in that account. A faction opened it trying to make the 4Bs independent of the MRA. You claim proof. Don't be a coward. Bring it to the next MRA Quarterly

General Meeting (QGM) and I'll face you over it. The members can decide by secret ballot.

Your claim begs the question. How do you have access to these MRA records when the MRA Board does not? Those books were stored in the Burnley lock up which was emptied by the Gomperts/Money faction in 2002/3. VP Gomperts claimed trailer loads of material went to the tip but what has been illegally kept and by who? Records of the 4Bs in the 1990s belong to the MRA. A person holding those books against the will of the MRA would likely be a thief in law.

Catch 22. I want to move on from these incidents where Michael Czajka, Heather Ellis, Dale Maggs, Barbara Maggs, myself, others and now the current MRA Board are victims of vilification and character assassination, but each time I begin to move on, there's a gutless and baseless attack from behind. I have to defend myself.

Your false allegations from the distant past are an example and they demonstrate your ammunition is fiction with petty hatreds.

Present your "proof". Return the MRA's property. Move on.

Hang on, I thought Damien told the courts that he had NEVER threatened the then president. Which is the real truth? Did he lie under oath? The court transcripts clearly note that Damien left well before Alex, so who really did run away? Also, I recall that Damien took all the money out of the 4B's bank account to set up Elizabeth Street and there used to be a debt owed by him to the MRAA for this money, but it miraculously disappeared just prior to his departure as president. Now that is a provable fact, just go back over the financials, to around 1996-1998. Why did Brian Beardon not check this out before agreeing to the pay-out?

Cowardly Damien, very cowardly...

Pete.

I did ask Alex Money to step outside and settle it like a man. He ran away, got a family court order to stop me attending activities he was at. He hired covert security and a bodyguard to keep members in line at MRA meetings. Members weren't told. The bill was over $19,000. Members funds were shifted into a trust account before a mass resignation of the Gomperts/Money faction last January. Money

wound up paying less than $4000 of his legal/security bill. None of this was done with the knowledge of the rank & file membership, let alone a vote.
